Brief Description of HL No. 014

This solitary vase has a square mouth, long and thin neck, narrow at the bottom of the belly, with high rounded feet. It looks quaint and dignified, with fluid silhouette and refined materials. The rim of mouth is covered by red glaze. The neck is inlaid with four golden birds, the belly of the vase is inlaid with four golden beast heads, and the four legs with human heads. The vase is exquisite and unique with beautiful shape, which is favoured by the royal family. The vase body is painted with Wucui colors, showing various flower patterns with even and thick green glaze. The mouth and waist of the vase are surrounded with gold color and geometric patterns. The workmanship of the whole vase is extraordinary, showing the magnificence and dignity of Qianlong colored porcelain. The painting style and the foreign ladies depicted show the unique characteristics.

Market price: USD38,000-50,000
