Apologies for the late reply. I hadn't check my emails for a while and yours went unseen until now.

- Vendor

Chosen vendor: "Ace Consulting Vocational Counselor"
 See attached filled form, dated 4/28/19.

To make sure, as I haven't contacted them yet. Do I need to actually do that?
 Check if they can take me as a client or something?

I just chose based by area's served. Picking the closest to me, b/c this would be better for my ride situations.
 This isn't like getting an appointment at a physician right? Where there would need to be prior approval etc.

- Trail Experience

On the subject of the "trial work experience". I am fine with whatever you would professionally recommend/suggest.

Good Afternoon, Jeffrey,
 I am emailing you with an attached list of vendors. You need to contact the three circled and decide which one you would like to work with. Prior to you being made eligible for services, I would like for you to participate in a trail work experience. This will further determine your potential for successful employment. Please choose from the attached list and once you make you decision, either email or call me and let me know.

Thank you,

Meredith Beauregard, MHS, CRC

Notes:

This is concerning future "employment". Which is yet to be determined/IF at all possible.

Key to this process will be my initial display of physical capabilities. During the future "trial work experience". (Which is noted in the previous page's email correspondence.)
