DAILY BRIEF
18 JANUARY 1965

1. South Vietnam

Premier Huong's new cabinet is a compromise which gives the military the posts they demand but fills them with officers less objectionable to the civilians. The Buddhists, however, are not appeased.

2. Indonesia

President Sukarno and Foreign Minister Subandrio tell Ambassador Jones that harassing the US Embassy will stop. This ties in with other efforts recently to draw back from the brink on Malaysia and to keep the UN door ajar. In Borneo and central Sumatra, however, the Indonesian troop build-up continues.

3. Congo

The military lull is over. The rebels are attacking at Uvira on the Burundi border.
