Fwd: Jeffrey Bodin Sleep Study

See e-mail exchange between Rick and me. Haven't heard back yet. But you may want to look thru all of jeff's records and pull ANYTHING else related to that sleep testing.

That pressure would be something that Ochsner recommended for the machine when Jeffrey was supposed to try it out? Is that what you mean? If so, I'll see if Linda has anything like an order or a prescription for the machine they wanted him to use – unless that info would be somewhere else (if so, let me know).

I kind of hope it is OSA, because I know that can be treated and nothing is helping him – of course, he's being treated for narcolepsy and the people at Stanford are skeptical he even has narcolepsy (they suspect sleep apnea is causing all his problems)! This is crazy.

Thanks again.

Thanks..do you have a copy of the CPAP titration? I need to know what pressure was recommended. I'm shocked he has OSA given his age and size.
Rick
