1. French-Algerian relations

The suspension of negotiations at Evian last week by the rebels was predicated solely on the Sahara issue. 50X1

50X1

the French ment could not include the Sahara in its in France, offer of Algerian independence at this time because it might trigger an armed / uprising of European settlers in Algeria, the French army, and right wing elements De Gaulle told Stevenson that sovereignty was not the issue but 50X1 that France would have to stay in the Sahara to develop it economically.

Congo developments

a) Kasavubu has nominated Adoula as 50X1 formateur of a new government. the Gizenga bloc can be satisfied on vice premiership and key ministerial assignments, it probably will not 50X1 oppose Adoula as premier, b) The number of planned cargo flights from Cairo to Stanleyville--under contract with Air Jordan--has been increased from one a week for ten weeks to 80 during the next twelve months. Cargoes would be made up by the UAR army and would ostensibly be food, clothing and medicines. Gizenga clearly intends to build up his Stanleyville stronghold regardless of the outcome of political negotiations, c) Moscow has publicly dismissed Katangan Interior Minister Munongo's scheme to seek support from the USSR as a "dirty strategem."

DOCUMENTS OF INTEREST

I US Mission Berlin reviews East German situation and sums up: agree that there is wide-spread serious discontent among the Sovzone population, but we believe that there is only small outside possibility of outbreak of large-scale 1953-style political unrest. We continue to recommend that measures be taken to increase Soviet awareness of their total lack of mass support in East Germany (as elsewhere in satellite area) for their aggressive move against West Berlin, with all that this implies for the Soviet military position in time of We should certainly do what we can to weaken confidence of Soviet in their ability to keep Sovzone population in check. should also do whatever is possible to weaken Soviet support for SED as executive instrument of Soviet's German policy. We should take what steps we can, by both open and gray propaganda, to induce Soviets to make Ulbricht and present SED leadership scapegoats for any reversal of policy which Soviets might possibly decide upon as result of unity and determination of NATO powers to maintain our position in West Berlin. Notwithstanding all of foregoing, however, our analysis of East German political and economic situation leads us to conclusion that there is not at present any strong likelihood of repetition of June 1953 events or similar uprising.
